PORT ARTHUR IS DOOMED

REPORT TO THAT EFFECT FROM CHEFOO.

Last Assault of Japanese Re- sults in Capture of Important Positions—Various Reports From the Front.

Chefoo, Nov. 3.—Port Arthur is doomed. The correspondent of the Associated Press here received information, the reliability of which is beyond question, that the Japanese now occupy positions which place the east side of the town at their mercy. The last assault has gained for them positions which insure their ability to enter the main east forts whenever they are ready. The Japanese occupy in overwhelming numbers positions in the east hills which enable them to drive the Russians back whenever they desire. When the Japanese occupy the eastern ridge of forts they will completely dominate the other Russian forts with their artillery.

Conservative Japanese, realizing the intense desire of the Japanese for good news on the emperor's birthday, receive the above reports with reserve.

Headquarters Third Japanese Army, in Front of Port Arthur, Wednesday, Nov. 3. (The Associated Press.)—The Japanese are now in a position to commence the beginning of the end of operations to capture the eastern fortified ridges. Their siege has been completed by the placing of eleven field howitzers. During the night of Oct. 28 all reserves advanced through a network of trenches in front of the eastern fortified ridges from south of Kekwan, to the west of Kekwan Shochuan. Bombardment began at dawn of the 29th. Infantry attacks were planned to go against Rihlung mountain and on the three Kekwan forts. There is tremendous excitement among the troops, who are convinced the capture of the fortified ridges will compel the surrender of Port Arthur in time for the emperor's birthday.

JAPANESE REPORT.
With the Third Japanese Army in Front of Port Arthur, Nov. 2.—About the end of August this division of the Japanese besieging army received some heavy howitzers, adding materially to the naval guns used alone up to that time. Reinforcements of men were also brought up. Sept. 19 bombardment was begun upon Nannokayama ridge, the 200-meter hill, half-moon fort of Shushui valley and the redoubt at the foot of Rihlung mountain. The bombardment was started at dawn. The Russians did not reply until afternoon, when the Japanese advanced. They were met by a tremendous fusillade of machine guns and were forced to retire to their trenches, but at four in the morning the main attack was made and the Japanese succeeded in capturing the Rihlung redoubt, entering it through a breach made by the artillery. A fierce hand to hand encounter inside the redoubt followed, during which dynamite and hand grenades were used to destroy block houses, whose brave defenders stood their ground until the last man was bayoneted. The Russian trenches were captured by the Japanese, but the redoubt was destroyed by explosive. Japanese casualties were over a thousand. The Russians left only a few dead in their positions.

The evening of the 10th a regiment attacked the half-moon position in Shushui valley, but were repulsed. Twice again during the night the Japanese made unsuccessful assaults on these forts. Early in the morning of the 20th the whole force was concentrated in a furious assault on the west half-moon fort. The assault was crossed with scaling ladders, and dynamite and hand grenades were used to destroy Russian trenches and bomb proofs. The fighting, which lasted twenty minutes, was carried on at the point of the bayonet. Finally the Russians gave way and the Japanese occupied all the half-moon forts. The Japanese loss was 400. The attack upon the 200-meter hill and the ridge immediately north, called Nannokayama, was started at five in the evening of the 19th. In spite of furious bombardment with which the Japanese supported the assault the Japanese infantry could not advance and were compelled to spend the night close to the first Russian trench line. Meantime a second Japanese regiment advanced against the west slopes of the 200-meter hill and a third regiment moved against the southwest. The Japanese bombardment began at dawn the 20th and all morning the slopes of the hill and ridges were treated to an inferno of bursting shells.

At 11 o'clock a small party of the second regiment charged forward to gain the foot of the west slope. Russian gunners opened shrapnel fire on them. The firing of shrapnel continued ten minutes, after which all the Japanese were down, either wounded or killed. The artillery continued until 5:30 in the evening, when the first Japanese regiment advanced up the slope of Nannokayama to the position which the Japanese had gained the night previous. With a rush they carried the trench line on the crest of the hill. The last Russian was bayoneted and the Japanese had full possession. Stones, bayonets, swords and hand grenades were used by both sides. The utmost ferocity was displayed. Before dark the Japanese were in full possession of the whole ridge, which they retained despite the awful shrapnel fire from Chair hill, Tsunglo, Tigerstony and Lintate forts.

At ten in the evening the regiment advanced on the southwest on Nannokayama hill. Four assaults were made by the Japanese during the night, but they were all repulsed. The third regiment was finally compelled to retire to a trench at the foot of the hill by concentrated shrapnel firing from the valley. The unsuccessful attempt to capture the advance fort resulted in two thousand Japanese casualties.

GENERAL STOESEL WOUNDED.
London, Nov. 3.—A dispatch to a news agency from St. Petersburg says Lieutenant General Stoesel, commander of the Russian troops at Port Arthur, is reported wounded in the leg.

SKIRMISHES.
St. Petersburg, Nov. 3.—Kuropatkin, under today's date, reports that skirmishes occurred during the night of Nov. 1, when Russian sharpshooters destroyed some Japanese entrenchments. No casualties were made the night of Nov. 2, but there were no indications of serious engagements anywhere.

FEELING OF RELIEF.
St. Petersburg, Nov. 3.—There is a scarcely veiled feeling of relief throughout St. Petersburg that the day has passed without bringing news of the fall of Port Arthur. There has been considerable fear that the Japanese might push home the final attack to day. The authorities state they are without direct news from Port Arthur and every one is depending upon foreign sources for tidings of the devoted garrison.

RUSSIAN SQUADRON.
Toulon, Nov. 3.—All vessels composing the Russian squadron are now anchored in the bay. British cruisers escorted them here from Vigo.

JAPANESE LOSSES.
London, Nov. 3.—The Daily Telegraph's Chefoo correspondent telegraphing Thursday says that the Japanese losses during the last assault on Port Arthur were heavier than on any of the previous attacks. The bombardment, he says, was so fierce that the streets of Chefoo were said to tremble as though from an earthquake.

The same paper's correspondent with General Oku, under date of Nov. 2, says that indications are that a terrific engagement is about to commence.

Berlin, Nov. 4.—The Lokal Anzeiger's Mukden correspondent claims the most trustworthy authority for the statement that 34,000 sick or wounded Russian soldiers were sent away after the last engagement.

NORTH SEA INCIDENT

Negotiations Regarding Court of Inquiry Not Completed

St. Petersburg, Nov. 3.—Negotiations regarding the North sea court of inquiry are not yet concluded. The Associated Press is informed that the present position is as follows:

Terms of the draft of the treaty for constitution of the court are under consideration by the emperor, who may desire some modification, in which the submission of the draft to London will of course be necessary, but the amendments, if any, are not expected to be of importance. One of the points already agreed on is that Great Britain and Russia will jointly propose that France and the United States appoint a high naval officer as a member of the court, which probably will sit in Paris.

RAILROAD DIRECTORS.

New York, Nov. 3.—Directors of the Rock Island company, Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway company, Keokuk & Des Moines, Peoria & Bureau Valley and El Paso company held meetings here to day. Robert Mather, who was elected president of the Rock Island board last month, resigned as first vice president of the railway company and was succeeded by R. A. Jackson, heretofore general attorney.

BRIDGE BURNED.

Charle du Chien, Wis., Nov. 3.—A wooden bridge fifty feet long in an isolated place three miles below the city on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad burned to night. Officers believe it was done by train robbers, who planned to ditch a passenger train. A hunter who happened along was roughly handled in the dark. He was unable to give a description of the men, but believes there were six or eight of them.

WAR REPORTS.

Mukden, Nov. 3.—There have been a number of skirmishes along the whole front during the last few days, but none of importance.

RUSSIAN SHIPS AT TANGHER.

SPEECHES BY FAIRBANKS

DELIVERED TWENTY IN INDIANA YESTERDAY.

Began at Bloomington and Concluded at Terre Haute—Secretary Wilson Speaks in Chicago—In Iowa.

Terre Haute, Ind., Nov. 3.—Nearly twenty speeches were made to day by Senator Fairbanks in western Indiana, beginning at Bloomington in the morning and concluding with a large and enthusiastic evening meeting at Terre Haute. In a brief speech at Newport Fairbanks took occasion to deny the published report that in event of the Democrats carrying the Indiana legislature he would refrain from qualifying as vice president if elected and would remain in the senate. He said: "It is unnecessary for me to say to you, my friends, that, having accepted the nomination upon the national ticket I shall qualify as vice president if the American people so will."

In his Crawfordsville speech he said the Republican party has been the best friend of republican institutions we have had since the time of George Washington. "It knows something about what this republic stands for. In a serious hour, the bitterness of which has faded away and I hope, is gone forever, the Republican party stood for national unity. It stood for the maintenance of the supremacy of one flag in the United States. Our course, in the Philippines is consistent with the principles of Republicanism. We went into them under the leadership of one of the ablest statesmen this country has ever produced, William McKinley and Theodore Roosevelt is carrying forward the policies of William McKinley, not only in the United States, but is carrying forward his policies in the far-off Philippines. I do not really blame them for undertaking to win the minds of the American people from the contemplation of Democratic mistrust at home by crying imperialism in the Philippine islands. If the Republican party had been so uniformly opposed to great and wholesome policies in the United States and had been guilty of so many mistakes we would be in favor of that party erasing an issue eight thousand or eighty thousand miles away."

SECRETARY WILSON.
Chicago, Nov. 3.—Secretary Wilson in an address at a mass meeting conducted by the Scandinavian Republican clubs of Chicago at the Auditorium theatre to night accused Judge Parker, the Democratic nominee of making a misstatement in his recent speeches in the east. Wilson asserted Parker's remarks relative to the Philippines were inaccurate and his assertions concerning Roosevelt repeatedly made in recent speeches were of the same character.

Charles S. Deneen, Republican candidate for governor of Illinois, and Prof. Frank Nelson, of Kansas, also addressed the meeting.

IN IOWA.
Des Moines, Nov. 3.—Hon. G. D. Roberts, director of the mint, delivered a Republican address at Emmetsburg, Iowa, this evening. Roberts spoke in detail of the Panama negotiations, defending the administration, and discussed trust regulations.

Charles S. Deneen, Republican candidate for governor of Illinois, spoke at Mount Pleasant, Iowa, this morning. Deneen devoted the greater part of his time to discussion of the Philippine question, touched briefly on trusts and closed with a tribute to Roosevelt.

SECRETARY TAFT.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 3.—Secretary Taft addressed a large meeting of Republicans here to night. He ridiculed Parker's suggestion that instead of fortifying the coast and increasing the army and navy the country should rely upon moral suasion. Taft discussed the Philippines and defended the course of the administration in the islands.

SENATOR CULLOM.

Calro, Nov. 3.—Senator Cullom to night spoke in Calro on campaign issues. He addressed himself mostly to negroes, who composed three-fourths of the audience. He appealed to them to "stand by the party which freed them," and discussing the alleged disfranchisement of voters in the south, said that some day the people of this country were going to "rise up" and see that the negro got his rights.

APPROVAL DECLINED

Hungarian Lower House of Diet Rejects Peace Proposal Made by Kossuth

Budapest, Hungary, Nov. 3.—The lower house of the Hungarian diet has declined to approve the resolution of Francis Kossuth, president of the Independent party, calling on the premier to urge the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister to support any diplomatic action on the part of the United States tending to put an end to the Russian-Japanese difficulties.

Supporting his motion, Kossuth to day declared that Russia, despite her defeats, had brilliantly maintained her reputation for gallantry, so that she can accept intervention without feeling that her honor is affected.

Premier Tisza, however, while declaring he fully appreciated Kossuth's noble intentions, pointed out that action by a neutral power could only be effective if the belligerents desire it. At the premier's request the motion was rejected.

NOVA SCOTIA

Scept by Liberals in Yesterday's Election.

Halifax, N. E., Nov. 3.—The Liberals swept Nova Scotia in to day's election from Cape Breton to Cape Sable and won the greatest victory ever achieved in the history of Canadian politics. They not only defeated Robert L. Aldrich, of Halifax, leader of the conservative forces in Canada, but elected every one of the other seventeen candidates of the province.

The clear sweep was more of a surprise than the defeat of Aldrich, as Halifax county had generally been also in all contests, but no one expected that the Liberal candidates would be successful in every constituency.

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 3.—The dominion parliamentary elections were held to day. Returns at midnight point to the reelection of the Laurier government with a majority of between sixty and seventy in the house of commons. This is a Liberal gain of about fifteen. The province of Quebec, Laurier's home, sustained the premier by returning a large Liberal majority. The principal issue was the construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific railroad with government aid, a project favored by the Liberal government.

AIRSHIP FOUND

Discovered Sixteen Miles From St. Louis—Was Uninjured.

St. Louis, Nov. 3.—The Baldwin airship has been found sixteen miles west of St. Louis in a corn field near Fern Ridge. It was uninjured and still floating when discovered, although it anchored itself by a rope entangling in a limb of a tree.

John Morley, Great Britain's famous historian and parliamentary leader, made the principal address and Edmund Aman-Jean, head of the International art jury, spoke in French.

Rome, Nov. 3.—The condition of the pope not having improved since yesterday, Dr. Lajponti insisted his holiness should give no audience to day.

PARKER IN CONNECTICUT

SPOKE TO FOUR AUDIENCES IN STATE.

Principal Speech of Democratic Candidate Made at Hartford— What He Had to Say at Bridgeport—Stevenson in Indiana.

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 3.—Four enthusiastic audiences greeted Judge Parker to day on his visit to the state, and in several other places through which his train passed. The Democratic candidate left New York during the forenoon and sped westward on the New York and New England, where the first stop was made. The principal speech of the trip was in this city to night, though other receptions were held in Bridgeport, New Britain and Meriden, where an address was made from the rear end of the train. This speech dealt with the question of trusts and the candidate attempted to refute the charge that the Standard Oil company is the financial sponsor of the Democratic party and charged that company's interests are with the Republican party.

The meeting in this city was one of the greatest held in this state. Parker was given a warm welcome from the moment he reached the city at 6 p. m. When the train bearing the judge and party arrived at the union station several thousands were gathered to give the candidate a welcome. He was driven to the Hartford club, where the committee were on hand to meet him. The meeting was held in the opera house, which was filled long before the hour set for calling the meeting to order. All entrances were blocked by the time the candidate was driven to the opera house and admittance was effected with great difficulty. When he appeared on the platform Parker was greeted with an ovation that lasted eighteen minutes. As soon as order was restored Parker was introduced.

At Bridgeport he spoke as follows:

In his speech Parker combated the "stand pat" theory, saying, in part:

"The whole of modern progress has come largely from refusal of the world to 'stand pat.' Each successive generation has recognized the virtues and accepted the labors of its predecessors, and in doing so none has ever declined or refused to recognize new demands or corrected old abuses. There is no more reason why we should resolve not to revise our national revenue laws than there would have been at other periods of history to stop all progress. This is especially true of abuses which have become rooted in our human life. It is easy enough for a favorite who in this case is the predominant partner with the government to resist any suggestion of change. But the farmer, laborer, man or woman of fixed income, a student struggling for an education, a poor girl supporting her mother's family—these are entitled to inquire whether this policy of using the law to give favors to the few while the many are left to nurse a sense of injustice, should become permanently fixed merely because power or corruption or a short-sighted economic policy has brought it to us as a heritage."

PLATFORM ADDRESS.

Meriden, Conn., Nov. 3.—The only rear platform address made by Judge Parker was when his train stopped here for five minutes on the way to Hartford. It was an impromptu address in which he flayed the Republican party because of the financial aid that party is alleged to have received from the trusts. He charged that every monopoly, including the Standard Oil company, is doing everything in its power to bring about the election of the Republican ticket. Mention of the Standard Oil company in this connection is the first denial that the Democratic candidate has made to the charge that the Standard Oil company is preparing to assist financially toward his election.

STEVENSON.

Pittsburg, Ind., Nov. 3.—Former Vice President Adlai B. Stevenson, of Illinois, addressed a political meeting in this city to night. Stevenson's address was well received.

CANDIDATE DAVIS.

Davis, W. Va., Nov. 3.—Henry G. Davis, Democratic vice presidential candidate, delivered his thirteenth speech of the day here to night. Davis declared that one single trust contributed one million dollars to the Republican campaign fund. He did not name the trust.

WYOMING BANDITS.

Cody, Wyo., Nov. 3.—A telephone message from Basin says Sheriff Fenton and posse hunting the bandits are in the bad lands over near Thermopolis. The bandits are getting among friends and it is thought the sheriff's party will have some hard fighting on their hands.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Nov. 3.—Officials of the United States marshal's office here are convinced that one of the men who endeavored to rob the bank at Cody is Harvey Logan, a train robber, and that it was Logan who killed Cashier McLaughlin. The reward for the bandits, dead or alive, has been set at $10,000.

SUDDEN DEATHS AT MEREDOSIA

Daniel S. Williams Found Dead on Main Street—Chris Voll- rodth Dies at Home Without Attendance of Physician—In- quests Held.

Coroner Reynolds was called to Meredosia Thursday by two sudden deaths in that city—the death of Daniel S. Williams, who was found dead on Main street early Thursday morning, and of Chris Vollrodth, who died at the home of his daughter, about four miles east of Meredosia in the bluffs about 2 o'clock in the morning, without having had the attention of a physician.

A. T. Gooden, as he was passing down Main street, about 5:30 o'clock in the morning, came upon a body lying in the street. He supposed it was a man asleep and tried to arouse him, but was unable to do so. He started up the street for help and met G. W. Davis, a bartender in Halles' saloon, who went back with him, and they found the man was dead. Investigation proved him to be Daniel S. Williams, who had been employed on the levee gang of the Meredosia camp for about thirty days. He was identified by his cousin, John Geary, who had come to Meredosia Wednesday to take a job on the levee.

The coroner's jury met at 1 o'clock, and A. T. Gooden, John Geary and C. W. Cleveland, a barber, who saw the body before it was removed from the street, were examined. John Geary gave the only testimony that threw light on the case. He said Williams had worked on the levee for thirty days, and that he (Geary) had come to Meredosia Wednesday to get a job. He met Williams, who asked him to go up to the saloon on the north side of Main street. They took a drink. They left there and went to Halles' place on the south side of the street and took another. Here they parted, and Williams said he was going to get something to eat. This was the last that Geary saw of him until he saw him dead.

Williams was something of a rover, but was ordinarily a sober and industrious man. He was addicted to periodical drinks and was exceedingly susceptible to the influence of liquor, at two or three drinks would sometimes overcome him to such an extent that he could not walk. He has a sister, Mrs. Sarah Baumgartner, at Meredosia, and an intimate friend, M. M. Morris, at Bluff, both of whom were notified. The remains will be held at the Schaffer undertaking parlors in Meredosia until these are heard from.

The verdict of the jury was that death was due to heart failure due to acute alcoholism.

VOLLRODTH.

Chris Vollrodth was an aged German, who had lived with his daughter, Mrs. Ida Dierghaus, for about a year. He was born in Germany eighty years ago and had lived in Meredosia for about fifteen years. His health had always been good and he ate and slept well until Tuesday night. He was taken violently ill Wednesday night and his daughter told she could not find him, but had no doctor. He wandered about the house and yard, apparently out of his mind. He was placed in bed about midnight and died at 2 o'clock in the morning. The funeral will be held Saturday.

Because of the suddenness of the death and the fact that no physician was in attendance, it was thought best to hold an inquest, and the evidence was essentially as the foregoing. The verdict was that death was due to a cerebral hemorrhage.

DEFEATED BY MONMOUTH.

The Illinois college football eleven was overwhelmingly defeated by the Monmouth college team on the grounds of the latter Friday afternoon. Two halves of thirty minutes were played and at the end of the first half the score was 36 to 0 and at the end of the game the score stood 75 to 0.

The local eleven were weakened by the absence of R. Harmon and McDonald, captain. They were also greatly out-weighted and met one of the strongest teams Monmouth has had in the field in years. It was the same eleven that held Knox to a last Saturday.

The last time Illinois college and Monmouth college met on the gridiron was at the West Side park in this city, when the Illinois team was victorious in a hard fought game by a score of 6 to 0. The Illinois men came out of the game in good condition and no serious injuries were recorded. The lineup was as follows:

C. W. Bartlett, of Joplin, Mo., departed Thursday, after a pleasant visit at the home of his father, C. L. Bartlett.

YOUNG GIRL MURDERED

DEAD BODY FOUND IN VACANT LOT

Terrible Death Met by Eighteen Year Old Alma Steinhay of Cluchnat—No Clue to the Murderer.

Cincinnati, Nov. 3.—Terribly cut and crushed about the head, the dead body of Alma Steinhay, a telephone operator, aged 18, was found in a vacant lot near Spring Grove cemetery at Whittier Place, a suburb, to day. There is no clue to the murderer.

The girl left the telephone office at Cincinnati at 9 o'clock last night and her body was found in the lot near the cemetery this morning. From one wound the brains were oozing, another blow had crushed her jawbone, knocked out several teeth and a triangular section of the jaw itself. From the place where the body was found a blood-stained trail marked the path along which the body was drawn. Along this trail were found the print of heavy boots, apparently those of the murderer. It is believed the girl was waiting for a Whittier road car when attacked.

A REAL HERO.

Thomas Battie, the man who saved the residence of J. Z. Scott from destruction at the time of the acetylene gas explosion, was able to be about Thursday, though he was so bound up that only breathing and seeing room were allowed him by his physician, while his hands were both bandaged also. A man who was on the ground soon after the explosion highly praises the conduct of Mr. Battie, whom he pronounces a real hero. Though his hands were raw and blistered with fire he bravely bore the daughter of Mr. Scott to a safe place, extinguished the fire on her and then went to carrying water to save the house. Not all the heroes are to be found on the field of battle or even in public places. It is hoped that he will soon be all right, though he says his hands are in a bad condition.

The Republican club of District No. 10 will meet in the office of Esquire Arenz Friday evening, Nov. 4, at 7:30 o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

CONGREGATIONAL SUPPER. The supper and sociable at the Congregational church last night were decided successes. As a matter of course, the menu was excellent as is always the case with meals prepared by the ladies of that society, and equally as a matter of course the patronage was large, as people like to go where the good things of life are to be had. The evening was most happily spent by all present.

PUBLIC SALE. The sale of the personal property of W. H. Sanford, held near Concord Thursday, was well attended. Implements and hogs sold well; as did also cattle and cows. Horses and hay sold slow. The total amount of sales was $3,200. Charles Taylor was auctioneer and L. P. Cowdin, clerk.

NOTICE. The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of Centenary church will meet at the home of Mrs. S. W. Black, 826 West College avenue, this afternoon at 3 o'clock. A good attendance is desired.

A POLICEMAN'S TESTIMONY. J. N. Patterson, night policeman of Nashua, la., writes: "Last winter I had a bad cold on my lungs and tried at last a half dozen advertised cough medicines and had treatment from two physicians without getting any benefit. A friend recommended Foley's Honey and Tar and two-thirds of a bottle cured me. I consider it the greatest cough and lung medicine in the world. Sold by J. A. Obermeyer, City Drug Store."

PHYSICIANS PRESCRIBE IT. Many broad-minded physicians prescribe Foley's Honey and Tar, as they have never found so safe and reliable a remedy for throat and lung troubles as this great medicine. For sale by J. A. Obermeyer, City Drug Store.

ELECTED OFFICERS.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of Brooklyn church met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Waller. The following officers were elected: President—Mrs. Richardson. First vice president—Mrs. Follansbee. Second vice president—Mrs. Brittenham. Recording secretary—Mrs. Watson. Corresponding secretary—Mrs. Pocock. Treasurer—May Graves. "WANG." In a year marked by a great number of theatrical revivals, no more promising announcement is made than that of the return of De Wolf Hopper in his pristine success, "Wang," in which he will be seen at the opera house Wednesday, Nov. 9, supported by Marguerite Clark, Frank Belcher, Ada Deaves, F. H. Bishop and half a hundred other associate players. Sam. S. Shubert sends Mr. Hopper to us with the same elaborate stage settings that made "Wang's" now famous revival the talk of New York during its hundred nights' run at the fashionable Lyric theatre. REPUBLICAN TICKET

For President, THEODORE ROOSEVELT.
For Vice President, CHARLES WARREN FAIRBANKS.
For Governor, CHARLES E. DOWDEN.
For Lieutenant Governor, LAWRENCE Y. SHERMAN.
For Secretary of State, JAMES A. ROSE.
For Attorney General, WILLIAM H. STEAD.
For State Treasurer, LEN SMALL.
For Auditor, JAMES S. M'CUILLUGH.
For University Trustees, MRS. M. A. BUSSEY.
For State Board of Equalization, CHARLES L. HAYDEN.
For Member House of Representatives, CHARLES PETZERT.
For Senator, FRANK J. HEINL.
For State's Attorney, BERT A. VAN WINKLE.
For Clerk of the Circuit Court, CHARLES L. HAYDEN.
For Coroner, DR. J. H. SPENCER.
For County Superintendent of Schools, J. H. D'LONG.
For County Commissioner, GEORGE DETTRICK.
For County Surveyor, MANSELL DUDLEY.

All remember that the polls will open at 7 a. m. and close at 5 p. m. election day. Look in the Journal and see where to vote.

A vote for the president will be a vote to continue the present prosperity of the country, and this is a fact that wise men will regard.

As the day for election approaches it becomes more and more evident that the Democracy will, as usual, take a back seat.

"It's all over but the shouting," sounds well, but the fact remains that no election is decided until the ballots are cast. Don't forget to vote early on Nov. 8.

Such speeches as the one delivered by Hon. Henry T. Rainey will not hurt the Republican party, but rather to the contrary. He is among the very best the party has, but when a good man has nothing to talk about, it's rather hard to get up a speech.

A vote for Frank J. Heinl and Charles Petzert means that it is the desire to send to the legislature the best men the counties contain; men who will represent the best interests of the people and seek their welfare in all possible ways.

A vote for Bert VanWinkle for state's attorney shows that we believe in giving the young men a show and helping them to the front when they are industrious, capable and all right for the place, as is the case with Mr. VanWinkle.

Only a few more days will elapse before election time and it behooves every loyal Republican to work for the whole ticket. A vote for Deenen and the state ticket means that we are to enjoy four years of honest state government, administered for the benefit of the whole commonwealth.

A vote for Charles L. Hayden for circuit clerk shows that we believe the county records should be carefully and capably kept by a man who knows how to do it, has done it satisfactorily and is ready to keep on doing it again.

A vote for Dr. Spencer for coroner shows that the people believe in selecting a man according to his fitness for the office and that when such an important place as that of coroner is to be filled a physician such as Dr. Spencer is the best man.

A vote for J. H. DeLong for superintendent of schools shows that the people believe when they are considering the most important enterprise in the land they seek the best men to take charge of it; men of ability and long experience and advancement.

A vote for George Detrick for county commissioner shows that when people have the most important business interests to be cared for they select a competent man to do it; a man who has had success in his own affairs and an excellent reputation.

A vote for Mansell Dudley shows that the people believe in encouraging an enterprising man who is trying to make something of himself when he has an opportunity. A man who works hard against serious obstacles and acquires valuable knowledge.

Mr. Rainey was rather hard on labor unions Thursday night. He said they had to organize to get their rights, which is certainly most true, but he added that it was to be admitted that they were a trust and excused them on the grounds that when a man is bitten by a poisonous serpent he injects a worse poison into his system to cure the bite. That is hardly complimentary to the unions.

A gentleman who returned yesterday from west of the Illinois river, said he was standing in a store one day when some gentlemen were speaking in terms complimentary to the present administration and expressing their intention to vote to keep it in power, when a young man stepped up and said he was for Parker, whereupon a traveling man rushed up and took him warmly by the hand, remarking how glad he was to meet him, as he had received several hundred miles and a great many persons and had not before found one who agreed with him in politics.

CITY COUNCIL

REGULAR SESSION HELD THURSDAY NIGHT

Discussion Over Increase of Salaries of Patrol and Firemen—Ordinance Against Music in Saloons—Old Engine House to Be Repaired

The city council considered several questions of importance last evening. Considerable discussion was indulged in over the finances of the city under the head of approval of bills, and action was postponed on bills presented by the sewer contractor and inspector on East Morton avenue and South Clay avenue. The ordinance providing for increase in salaries of firemen and patrolmen was brought up, but aside from authorizing the mayor to employ a desk sergeant at a salary of $65 per month, it was decided that the matter of adjustment of salaries should be postponed until the consideration of the new budget, which would be in January. The defacement sidewalk ordinance was passed and the anti-music saloon ordinance was re-introduced, but failed by one vote to receive the necessary seven votes to make it effective.

Several downtown nuisances were considered and the street commissioner was instructed to have the necessary repairs made. The question of selling vaults at Diamond Grove cemetery by the sexton was brought up and the matter was referred to the cemetery committee. The condition of the old fire engine house on West Morgan street was referred to the finance committee to advertise for bids for repairs at a cost not to exceed $500. The ordinance committee introduced a resolution providing for the calling of a special election for the refunding of city bonds, which expire next April, and the same carried.

The city council met in regular session Thursday evening. Mayor John R. Davis in the chair and all members present except Aids. Hil-dreth and Higgins.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

All properly approved bills were ordered paid.

Ald. Vaughn brought up the question of approving the bills of John Daily for construction of sewers on Clay avenue, amounting to $2,274.70, and East Morton avenue, amounting to $1,297.71; and also bills of Mr. Vasconcellos, inspector on said streets.

Ald. Vaughn, seconded by Ald. Moore, moved that all bills pertaining to sewer construction in said streets lie over until next meeting. Carried.

Under the head of reports of officers, Ald. Kennedy brought up the question of the sexton of Diamond Grove cemetery selling vaults as a private business apart from his duties as sexton. The alderman objected in strong terms to the selling of vaults at the cemetery by anybody, whether he be sexton, commissioner or anybody else.

Ald. Doolin thought the selling of vaults by the sexton ought to be stopped.

Ald. Moore, seconded by Ald. Kennedy, moved that the matter be referred to the cemetery committee.

The reports of city officers were read and ordered placed on file.

The city clerk reported that the funds of the street paving, water, street cleaning, Central park and special assessment funds were exhausted.

Ald. Vaughn wanted to know what the amount of overdrawn indebtedness of the city was and City Clerk Stewart reported about $15,000. Ald. Vaughn then asked the amount of per cent being paid, and the clerk stated it was 6 per cent.

Ald. Vaughn thought the city of Jacksonville could borrow for a less per cent.

Ald. Moore, as member of the finance committee, objected to the matter of borrowing money being taken out of the finance committee's hands and the mayor and clerk borrowing the money.

City Clerk Stewart stated that the money was not borrowed until the finance committee had failed to act.

Ald. Moore raised the question of why the committee had failed to act, and Ald. Cobb, as chairman of the committee, stated he was out of the city at the time the money was borrowed and when he returned he found the money had been borrowed and for that reason did not call the committee together.

Mayor Davis stated that he was ready to borrow the money at a less rate, but did not know where the money could be obtained. He recalled the time as a member of the council when it was necessary for the several aldermen to sign joint notes before the city could obtain money. He was glad the condition of the city was such that a telephone from the mayor or the city clerk could secure money for the city from the banks.

Ald. Johnson, chairman of the public improvement committee, spoke regarding the water nuisance at the corner of East and South Clay streets, caused from water dripping from the roof of the barn.

Ald. Vaughn, Cobb and Kennedy had received several hundred miles and a great many persons and had not before found one who agreed with him in politics.

REPUBLICAN MEETINGS.

Nov. 3: Meeting at Rynder's hall at Centerville, at 7:30 p. m. Speakers, George L. Merrill and J. J. Regye.

Nov. 5: Meeting at Opera house at Mercedia at 7:30 p. m.

All voters irrespective of party affiliations are invited to attend these meetings.

JOHN R. DAVIS, Chairman County Central Com.
W. M. MORRISSEY, Secretary County Central Com.
H. M. TICKNOR, Chairman Speakers' Com.

with instructions by the mayor to act.

Ald. McGinnis brought up the matter of the downfall from Cherry's barn on North East street.

Ald. Babb called attention to a similar condition at the Park hotel.

Ald. Doolin changed his motion instructing the mayor to order the street commissioner to see that the proper improvements were made.

Ald. Govin seconded and the motion carried.

Ald. Doolin brought up the question of the city building, known as the old engine house, on West Morgan street. The alderman stated he knew of a person who would give $1,000. He thought the city ought to sell the building.

Ald. Vaughn moved the matter be referred to the building committee to secure bids for repairing and putting in a new front.

Ald. Kennedy stated that he would resign as chairman of such committee before he would act under such instructions.

Ald. Vaughn then changed the motion to the finance committee.

Ald. Moore favored selling the building.

Ald. Kennedy wanted to see the building repaired at a cost of $50 to $75. He was not in favor of extensive repairs.

The mayor stated that something must be done soon, or the entire building would fall down. "The building can be improved immeasurably by putting it in first class shape and the best thing to do is to place the building in good condition." The mayor wanted the matter referred to some committee with power to act.

Ald. Govin expressed the opinion that the building could be reasonably well repaired at a cost of $500.

Ald. Vaughn amended his motion instructing the finance committee to repair the building, repairs to include new front, new stairway, new second floor and new roof—the total repairs not to cost to exceed $500.

Ald. Kennedy thought the above repairs could not be made for $500.

Ald. Doolin thought the building could be repaired at this cost, but that it could not be sold for enough to cover the cost of repairs, and he was in favor of selling the building now.

Ald. Ticknor seconded the motion and on a viva voce vote the same carried.

A roll call was then demanded and on roll call the vote stood 6 to 4.

MISS BEDFORD'S LECTURE

Many Ladies Avail Themselves of the Privilege of Hearing Her.

The first of the lectures advertised to be given by Miss Bedford under the auspices of Passavant hospital, was delivered at Odeon hall Thursday morning. The lady is an entertaining speaker, has a pleasant, winning manner and captures her audience from the first. She had a miniature kitchen right on the stage and worked as she talked, exemplifying each number by doing the thing itself in the presence of her hearers. The theme was "Breakfast Dishes and Left Overs," and the manner in which she showed them up was gratifying and while her preparations were probably a trifle more elaborate than the common run of dishes, they were not what would be called fancy or unattainable. "Popovers" first had attention and with three eggs, two cups of milk, a half teaspoon of salt and two cups of flour she made some nice looking articles so light that they had grown three times their first size while in the oven and caused enthusiasm on the part of the class. A Spanish omelette, a golden brown hue without a drop of butter, and a deep red within and enriched with the same rich, thick red brown sauce around was appetizing. "Ginger Hamkins," a left over dish of stale bread, raw custard and cheese, was excellent. "Minced Turnovers," made with a flaky crust, filled with mince made from cold meats, supplied an eatable dish. A "Cassaree of Potatoes and Liver," a pale, golden colored circle filled with the meats which had been cooked in thick brown sauce containing cut olives, was an attractive preparation. "Stewed Veal Kidneys" were prepared in such a manner that a savory odor was wafted from them delighting all. A novel dish was a variation on toast as different from the usual flabby article as can be and consisted of three-inch cubes of golden brown bread evenly colored and smoking hot.

Each article was passed around as soon as done and the ladies were permitted to sample it and all expressed themselves much pleased with the lessons, which continued until noon. The remaining numbers of the course will be given Tuesday and Thursday, same hour and place. The rest of her time is devoted to the nurses at Passavant hospital, who cannot fail to receive education of inestimable value in the preparation of diet for the sick.

OPERA HOUSE TO NIGHT.

Something about the acting of the members of William A. Brady and Joseph R. Grismer's company, who will appear in their production of Bartley Campbell's play, "Siberia," which is announced for to night, is pertinent and of interest. It is said that Carl Eckstrom, as the student sweetheart, plays the part in a way dear to the heart of the matinee girl and the joy of the gallery. Elliott Dexter, as his friend, is handsome, has a dreamy melodious voice and is a good actor. Franklyn Roberts is as fine a villain as ever was seen. He is a good actor as well. Felix Haney, as the philosophic servant, wins honors with his comedy.

Sylvia Lynden and Margaret Keenmare play the sisters, Sara and Marie. Miss Keenmare does her best work in the mad scene. Miss Lynden is excellent throughout her long role. Marian Chapman is a pretty and charming ingenue, who plays with spirit the flower girl, Vera. The remainder of the cast is above the standard of big companies.

Ald. Babb, Doolin, Goveia and Kennedy voting no. Ald. Goveia changed his vote to aye, before the vote was announced.

Ald. Vaughn, chairman of the ordinance committee, presented a resolution providing for the calling of a special election to provide for refunding $200,000 city bonds that matured in April. Carried.

Ald. Babb brought up the question of increasing the salaries of fire and police officials. He moved the matter be considered under the ordinance that was laid over some time ago. Ald. Doolin seconded.

Ald. Moore wanted to wait until the beginning of the year before considering the ordinance.

Ald. Vaughn wanted to wait until the new fire alarm system was installed, when the members of the council could act intelligently.

Ald. Doolin favored raising the salaries of police and fire officials.

Quite a discussion followed. Ald. Babb, Cobb, Vaughn and Kennedy participating.

Ald. Vaughn wished the whole police and fire departments could be put under civil service.

Ald. Cobb thought the fire and police officials were underpaid, but that the time to take the matter up was later.

Ald. Kennedy thought a good officer could not be paid too much, but he wanted them to be made to do their full duty. He thought the new system would necessitate an increase of policemen if the system was to be successfully operated.

Ald. Goveia thought the policemen were doing the work of two men and he wanted to see them well paid, but was not certain that the present time was the right one to consider the matter.

Ald. Johnson also favored an increase in the salaries of the police and fire officials, but he thought the matter should come up later.

The mayor thought it would be well to fix the salary of the desk sergeant at the present meeting, as that official would soon be needed under the new Signalphone system.

Ald. Tieknor concurred.

Ald. Moore also agreed.

Ald. Kennedy and Doolin wanted to wait longer before determining the salary of desk sergeant.

The motion of Ald. Babb to bring up the salary ordinance failed to carry.

Ald. Cobb, seconded by Ald. Babb, moved the mayor be empowered to employ a desk sergeant at a salary of $55 per month. Carried.

The clerk read the sidewalk de-facement ordinance for the first time. Ald. Cobb moved the emergency clause and same carried.

On motion of Ald. Doolin the original motion was then put and carried. Ald. Babb and Kennedy voting no.

Ald. Kennedy brought up the matter of the condition of Clay avenue after laying the sewer.

The mayor stated same would soon have attention.

Ald. Vaughn brought up the question of peddlers and hawkers being allowed to do business without a license during the last street fair. The alderman was against passing ordinances that were not enforced. He referred to the anti-music saloon ordinance. He felt that nothing caused a greater disregard of law than the making of laws and allowing them to go unenforced.

Mayor Davis in answer to Ald. Vaughn, said: "In speaking of the street fair, I will say that this council gave the last street fair committee the privilege of holding their fair, but did not insist upon the usual conditions of making them pay for cleaning up the park and streets, and for the extra policemen."

The council had given them the right to hold the fair I went to the local committee and insisted that they do this, and they complied.

"As to the music in the saloons, I feel that nothing is more degrading or objectionable, and if this council will pass a legal ordinance covering the matter I will see that it is enforced. When the ordinance was up some time ago the council was in favor of the ordinance. The ordinance is not a long one and if the members are in favor of this ordinance it can be considered to night and passed in a very few moments."

Ald. Tieknor, seconded by Ald. Moore, moved the council take up the saloon ordinance.

Ald. Kennedy stated that Ald. Tieknor did not offer the ordinance and the mayor stated he was willing to offer it and ordered the clerk to read the ordinance.

Ald. Goveia moved to adopt the emergency clause. Carried.

Ald. Goveia, seconded by Ald. Moore, moved the adoption of the ordinance.

Ald. Doolin and Kennedy spoke against it.

On roll call the vote was 6 to 4. Ald. Babb, Doolin, Kennedy and McGinnis voting no.

The mayor declared the ordinance carried, although the necessary majority of seven votes was not received, and it cannot become effective.

On motion of Ald. Doolin the council then adjourned.

WILL ALL VOTE FOR ROOSEVELT

Six Grandsons of Mrs. Ira Mapes Will Cast Their First Ballot for Republican Candidate.

Mrs. Harriet Mapes, widow of the late Ira Mapes, who resides at 210 South Church street, holds an enviable position among American mothers just at this time when the decks are being cleared for the battle of ballots on Nov. 8. On that day, six of her grandsons will cast their first vote and all will vote for Theodore Roosevelt.

Mrs. Mapes will be 89 years of age on the 26th day of this month and she was born in Jefferson county, Missouri, but for seventy years she has been a resident of Jacksonville.

She was married in 1835 to Ira Mapes and for several years lived upon what was then a farm on North Main street, but is now a residence property. Her husband, after leaving the farm, bought the old Morgan Mills, north of the city, and operated that plant for nearly twenty years. He was a staunch Whig before the organization of the Republican party and after its organization immediately became identified with that party, being always a firm believer in its principles. Mrs. Mapes has been no less enthusiastic regarding the political interests of her family, and has faithfully preached the doctrines of protection and strong partisanship, which has resulted in the education of five sons and six grandsons, who vote the straight ticket and know why they vote it.

The six grandsons who will vote for the first time are: Homer, Verder and Herbert Mapes, sons of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mapes, of Salina, Kans.; Sylvester Mapes, son of Mrs. Mahlon Mapes, of this county; Augustus Walker, son of Mrs. Emily Mapes Walker, of Springfield, and Otis Mapes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Mapes, of this city.

This family will cast eleven votes for Roosevelt this fall.

HON. HENRY T. RAINEY.

The much advertised speech of Hon. Henry T. Rainey, of Carrollton and member of congress from this district, was heard at the court house Thursday night. The circuit court room was a trifle more than half full with a respectful audience, made up partly of ladies. The gentleman was introduced by Hon. William Brown, of this city, and at once proceeded with his address. He devoted himself to the usual criticisms of the Republican party and the president, whom he quoted as saying eighteen years ago some things opposed to the principle of protection, and now uttering the contrary; though he neglected to explain the difference between the ideas laid down in the last two Democratic platforms and the famous telegram of Judge Parker. He denied that the Democratic party believed in free trade, but were for a tariff for revenue only sufficient here a pause of a few seconds—for the expenses of the government economically administered. He forgot himself long enough to pitch into the trusts a little, but probably recalled the fact that the main dependence of Judge Parker is in that direction and shifted his ground.

Mr. Rainey has a pleasant voice and an attractive personality, though his manner of speaking is slightly halting, due, no doubt, to the great difficulty of saying anything on the side he represents. Were he speaking for a better cause he would be a fluent talker and one who would attract big audiences. As it was, his treatment by the Morgan county Democracy was downright shabby. The best man they have sent to congress in years was entitled to an audience which would have packed the court room full, both seats and aisles. A conservative gentleman, who was there, said that not one-fourth as many persons were present as were at the Fairbanks meeting at the Wabash station, and that was at an inconvenient hour, when hundreds or thousands were kept away who might have gone in the evening.

THE CHICAGO & ALTON RY

And the "International Stock Show."

The Chicago & Alton railway has received from the general manager of the great International Live Stock Show, complete assurance that the public will avail themselves in great numbers of the low excursion rates made by the C. & A. railway. The show runs the week of Nov. 26. Applications for hotel accommodations are coming in thick and fast; judges are coming from England and other foreign countries; entries are surpassing all previous records (the Canadian representation being especially strong); these encouraging signs being only a few of the straws which show the whirlwind of popularity which has set in for this year's show. Interest in the 1904 "International" has spread even beyond the stockmen and farmers. The great railroads are alive to its importance, and the Chicago & Alton railway will make excursion rates low enough to insure a representative attendance from points on its lines.

DEATH RECORD

WEDNESDAY.

Tuesday morning John W. English passed away, after an illness of long duration. Deceased was born near Newark, Ohio, Sept. 19, 1826, and came to this county in 1861 and resided here the rest of his life, entering largely into several prominent enterprises and identifying himself with many public works. He was married May 5, 1851, to Margaret Curry and was the father of five children, one of whom died in infancy. The surviving ones are: Mrs. Mary Kessler, of Wichita, Kans.; Mrs. Florence Heitgold and Mrs. Margaret Craig, of Los Angeles, Cal., and Frank English, of this county.

Mr. English served two terms as county commissioner, once from 1868 to 1871, and from 1882 to 1885, his first colleagues being Edward Scott and Samuel Wood. He was a member of Jacksonville lodge No. 570, A. F. and A. M. Masons, and a worthy member of the order. In business he was always honorable, a man whose word was as good as a bond and at the same time he was kind and obliging. In his family he was much beloved and was always glad to do all in his power for the welfare of those dear to him.

The funeral will be conducted from the First Baptist church Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. T. H. Marshall in charge, and under the auspices of Jacksonville lodge No. 570, A. F. and A. Masons. Persons desiring to view the remains will please call at the family residence to day.

HENNESSY.

Michael Hennessey died at his home, 1325 Center street, Thursday morning at 11:15 o'clock, of convulsions, brought on by a tumor of the brain. He was 43 years of age and was born in Ireland, having resided in this country since his third year. He was for some time a brick maker in the employ of Edward Whitmer. He is survived by his wife and seven children.

Funeral services will be held at the Church of Our Savior Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. Interment will be in Calvary cemetery.

DOLAN.

Patrick Dolan, one of the most prominent citizens of Murrayville, died Thursday morning, after a lingering illness. Deceased was about 65 years of age and had been a resident of Murrayville precinct for many years. He leaves a wife and several grown children.

The funeral will take place at the Catholic church in Murrayville Saturday and the remains will be taken to Jacksonville for interment in Calvary cemetery.

COMPLIMENT TO ROOSEVELT.

The following dispatch tells its story itself:
"Paris, Nov. 3.—The foreign office expresses great satisfaction at the intention of England to ask for an American admiral to serve on the inquiry commission into the Doggers Bank affair. An attack speaking of this matter said:
"We consider this a compliment that the United States should be invited to help settle a European dispute. It is the direct consequence of President Roosevelt's pacific policy."

With what unutterable contempt does the fair minded, impartial person regard the charge that the president is a man of war with a big stick and seeking to stir up strife, as Bryan says, carrying the spirit of war into the white house.

HE COULD HARDLY GET UP.

P. H. Duffy, of Ashley, Ill., writes: "This is to certify that I have taken two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure and that it has helped me more than any other medicine. I tried many advertised remedies, but none of them gave me any relief. My druggist recommended Foley's Kidney Cure and it has cured me. Before commencing its use I was in such shape that I could hardly get up when once down. For sale by J. A. Obermeyer, City Drug Store."

John Meike was before Squire Arenz Thursday on the charge of carrying concealed weapons. He was assessed $5 and costs.

INSPIRATIONS FOR YOUNG MEN

Lives of Roosevelt and Deneen Attract the New Voters.

CAREERS OF BOTH ARE NOTABLE

Furnish Patterns of What is Noble in Character and Manhood.

All People Delight to Honor Such Worthy and Fitting Examples for the Youth of the Land.

The great Republican leaders of the past—Grant, Hayes, Garfield, Harrison, McKinley and Blaine in the nation, and such men as Logan and Oglesby in Illinois—afford most inspiring examples to the young men of today; and it is no wonder that under the inspiration of such lives the young men in this state and throughout the land are almost universally aligning themselves with that political party to which these leaders belonged.

And no less do our present leaders, Roosevelt in the nation and Deaneen in the state, afford to young men worthy patterns of all that is noble in character and manhood and that is worthy of emulation in patriotic and civic life.

Roosevelt's Individuality.

Roosevelt had the great misfortune to be born wealthy. An eminent American in addressing a class of students on graduation day said: "Young gentlemen, there is nothing to prevent a young man from succeeding in this country, unless it be that he is rich." But Roosevelt bravely struggled against this misfortune of his birth; and throwing himself courageously into the world of action and endeavor he rose by native ability, earnest purpose and patient toil to be a man among men, respected and admired for a sturdiness of physique, a forcefulness of character, a strenuousness of individuality, an invincibility of integrity, and a capacity for affairs which few men can equal.

With a body naturally weak he devoted himself to the development of his physical manhood so successfully that he became a very athlete in strength. Abandoning a home of ease and leisure he betook himself to a western ranch, and there, amid the hardships of ranching and of the hunting trail, he fitted himself to be a rough rider and leader of Rough Riders. Returning to civic life, he rose by sheer energy and ability through the positions of police commissioner of New York city and of civil service commissioner of the United States to be assistant secretary of the navy, colonel in the war with Spain, governor of the state of New York and vice president of the United States. By the death of the president he became president. And now for his own merit alone the people will this year elect him to the presidency itself.

Career of Deaneen.

The career of Mr. Deaneen is in many respects equally notable and interesting, and because he was born in a more humble sphere than Roosevelt he perhaps appeals somewhat more forcibly to the average young man. Seeking a good education he began a career of usefulness by teaching country schools. Going to Chicago he entered a law office, and to support himself he taught in the night schools of that city. Admitted to practice law, he showed himself a match for the strongest men of that preeminent bar. Chosen state's attorney because of his clearly recognized qualifications for that office, he established a record as a prosecutor which has made him famous not only in his own city and state but throughout the land. Under his state's attorneyship the criminals of the city—the "wealthy criminal class" as well as the men of the slums—experienced no mercy, except that mercy which fitsly tempers justice.

In his duty as a citizen Mr. Deaneen has been equally conspicuous and for years has stood high in the councils of his party. Thus thoroughly trained for office, the people of the state have called upon him to come up higher, and in the coming election they will make him chief magistrate of the proud commonwealth of Illinois. In personal character there is much in Mr. Deaneen to suggest the sturdiness and forcefulness of Roosevelt. In private life both Roosevelt and Deaneen are models of what a genuine American gentleman should be—men of scholarly instincts and of high and pure ideals, worthy citizens in all their home and social relationships. Such are the men whom the people delight to honor—worthy and fitting examples for the youth of the land. With his young men inspired by such lofty illustrations of manhood the future of our country is safe.

Beware of Roobacks!

Watch out for roobacks! It is not true that President Roosevelt is buying a crown made in London, 734 inches in size, or any other size. Senator Fairbanks has not attacked his mother-in-law, and Mr. Deaneen was not arrested in Vermilion county for stealing chickens. Pay no attention to charges held back until the last week.

Mrs. Fairbanks tells how neglect of warning symptoms will soon prostrate a woman. She thinks woman's safeguard is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Ignorance and neglect are the cause of untold female suffering, not only with the laws of health but with the chance of a cure. I did not heed the warnings of headaches, organic pains, and general weariness, until I was well high prostrated. I knew I had to do something. Happily I did the right thing. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound faithfully, according to directions, and was rewarded in a few weeks to find that my aches and pains disappeared, and I again felt the glow of health through my body. Since I have been well I have been more careful. I have also advised a number of my sick friends to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and they have never had reason to be sorry. Yours very truly, Mrs. MAY FAIRBANKS, 210 South 7th St., Minneapolis, Minn." (Mrs. Fairbanks is one of the most successful and highest salaried travelling saleswomen in the West.)

When women are troubled with irregular, suppressed or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhoea, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, bloating (or flatulence), general debility, indigestion, and nervous prostration, or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, faintness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, "all-gone" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feelings, blues, and hopelessness, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles. Refuse to buy any other medicine, for you need the best.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—For over two years I suffered more than tongue can express with kidney and bladder trouble. My physician pronounced my trouble catarrh of the bladder, caused by displacement of the womb. I had a frequent desire to urinate, and it was very painful, and lumps of blood would pass with the urine. Also had backache very often. "After writing to you, and receiving your reply to my letter, I followed your advice, and feel that you and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have cured me. The medicine drew my womb into its proper place, and then I was well. I never feel any pain now, and can do my housework with ease."—Mrs. ALICE LAMON, Kincaid, Miss.

No other medicine for female ills in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

Dollie's Dose.

Come, my darling, drink it up.
Oh, you mustn't make
Dreadful faces, though, my love.
I know 'tis hard to take.
But little dollies must be good
And take their medicine as they should.

For, when you get a bigger doll,
My precious little pet,
The medicine they get worse
And sometimes worse yet.
But great big dollies must be good
And take their medicine as they should.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY.

No one who is acquainted with its good qualities can be surprised at the great popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It not only cures colds and grip effectually and permanently, but prevents these diseases from resulting in pneumonia. It is also a certain cure for croup. Whooping cough is not dangerous when this remedy is given. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. It is also pleasant to take. When all of these facts are taken into consideration it is not surprising that people in foreign lands, as well as at home, esteem this remedy very highly and very few are willing to take any other after having once used it. For sale by all leading druggists.

PEOPLE OF THE DAY

Famous Woman Mountain Climber.

Miss Annie S. Peck, the mountain climber, who has just ascended Huascaran mountain, Peru, to a height of 21,000 feet, established a new record for herself and attained the highest point yet reached by any one in the Andes. She was prevented from reaching the summit because of immense crevices and snow. Huascaran is 22,050 feet high.

Last year Miss Peck ascended Mount Sorata to a height of 20,000 feet, the highest point ever gained on that mountain, and eclipsed her former record of 18,000 feet on Mount Orizaba, Mexico, in 1907.

Miss Peck was the first woman to reach the summit of the dreaded Matterhorn. In the Alps, in 1895. She climbed Popocatepetl and Mount Orizaba, in Mexico, and has made many other explorations in the Tyrol mountains and elsewhere. She is a western woman. She was educated in the University of Michigan and studied archaeology in Greece and other eastern countries.

Miss Peck failed in an effort to gain the top of Mount Sorata, in the Andes, last year, and last June she sailed for South America with the determination of going to the top of Sorata, Sabana and Huascaran. While she has failed by 1,050 feet in reaching the summit of Huascaran, she has beaten the record of Sir Martin Conway by several hundred feet.

The Jesuitic Farmer.

Dr. R. J. H. Gottlieb of Columbia university has a broad knowledge of oriental tales and proverbs. One day he told an old Persian story about a pessimistic farmer. "Good friend," a visitor said to the farmer, "you are fortunate this year." He pointed to the heavy and rich grainfields spreading as far as the eye could see. "You can't grumble," he went on, "about your crop this season, eh?" "No," whined the pessimist, "but a crop like this is terribly wearing on the soil."

Loose Chewing.

Judge Sam Walker, a distinguished lawyer of Memphis, Tenn., noted for his thrift, met Luke Wright, now governor general of the Philippines, in the courtroom one morning and said: "Take, give me some of that fine cut tobacco of yours," and added: "I don't chew enough of that to buy it." General Wright drew out his pouch and handed it to Walker, remarking with a dry smile: "No, Sam, you are mistaken. You don't buy enough to chew it." New York Herald.

A Fighting Japanese Prince.

Lieutenant General Prince Sadamuru Fushimi, who commands two divisions of the Japanese army, now operating against Kuropatkin in Manchuria, distinguished himself by "coolness" and "daring" at the battle of Nanshan hill, near Port Arthur, early in the present campaign.

The new historic charge at Nanshan hill took place after twelve hours of fighting but failed to dislodge the Russians from their entrenched position. General Oka then determined to take it by assault and ordered the first division, commanded by Lieutenant General Fushimi, to lead the charge. No sooner was the order given than the division surged up the hill in the face of a terrific fire, jumped over the entanglements and captured the fortifications, although it suffered enormous losses.

Lieutenant General Fushimi is one of the younger general officers now in the field. As a reward for his bravery at Nanshan he was promoted to the command of two divisions.

THE MARKETS

RANGE OF GRAIN PRICES.

Chicago, Nov. 3.—Wheat—Reports of protracted wet weather in Argentina brought out good demand at the opening and firm undertone prevailed. For a time buying was lively, shorts being active on that side, and slight advances were made in all deliveries, both December and May selling to $1.23. At this point there was heavy selling pressure, seemingly due to the report of a Cincinnati crop authority that damage to the growing crop by the Russian fly thus far has been comparatively insignificant. Primary receipts were again smaller than a year ago. Selling off of receipts had an effect and on the decline there was enough wheat wanted to re-establish the feeling of firmness with which business commenced. Drought reports stimulated the market. Close.

Corn—Reports of crop experts and continued excellent weather were factors that caused an easier undertone. According to a local statistician, making returns to date indicate a total crop of 2,500,000,000 bushels. Reports of cash sales at 7c above may prove of some assistance in checking the market. The close was 1/2c higher for December, May down 1/2c.

Oats—Steady within narrow range and lower than yesterday to 1/2c. The market was moderate trade. A little strength was imparted by the advance in wheat. The feature was commission house buying at 7c for May and July. Cash sales were 105,000 bushels.

At this point there was heavy selling pressure, seemingly due to the report of a Cincinnati crop authority that damage to the growing crop by the Russian fly thus far has been comparatively insignificant. Primary receipts were again smaller than a year ago. Selling off of receipts had an effect and on the decline there was enough wheat wanted to re-establish the feeling of firmness with which business commenced. Drought reports stimulated the market. Close.

Corn—Reports of crop experts and continued excellent weather were factors that caused an easier undertone. According to a local statistician, making returns to date indicate a total crop of 2,500,000,000 bushels. Reports of cash sales at 7c above may prove of some assistance in checking the market. The close was 1/2c higher for December, May down 1/2c.

BOARD OF PARDONS

Final Action in Case of Danville Rioters—Statement by Andrew Russell Chairman of Board.

The board of pardons Wednesday passed finally upon the case of the prisoners known as the Danville rioters and decided to hold them as long as the law will permit, which will be a five years' sentence.

This case is well known to the public. About sixteen months ago a man was arrested in one of the country townships of Vermilion county, charged with the crime of rape upon the wife of a farmer. The man was arrested and taken to Danville and placed in jail. In the evening a mob gathered upon the street and a man was killed by a negro. The negro was seized by the mob and burned on the public square. The mob then made an attack upon the jail, but was kept in bay by Sheriff Whitlock, who, with his deputies, fired upon the mob, and several of them were wounded. Ten of the rioters were convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary under the parole law.

In speaking of the conviction Chairman Russell of the board of pardons said "that the board felt it to be its duty to visit upon those men as severe punishment as the law would permit. One of the objects of the trial and conviction of men who violate the law is to deter others from like violations, and as this is the first instance on record in the state where men participating in a mob of this character have been convicted the board felt that it would only be doing its duty by inflicting the severest punishment upon them, which is five years in the penitentiary, so that others who might feel like engaging in similar conduct would understand fully what they might expect upon conviction."

FUNERAL OF

L. SEEBERGER

Impressive Services Conducted by Rabbi Traugott Thursday Afternoon—Brief Tributes by Dr. Short and Judge Kirby—Beautiful Floral Emblems.

The funeral of Lafayette Seeberger was held at his residence, 600 West State street, Thursday afternoon, where a large company of friends and relatives were gathered to pay a last and tribute of respect to the memory of one highly esteemed.

Rabbi A. Traugott, of Springfield, had charge of the services and brief addresses were made by Dr. W. F. Short and Judge Edward P. Kirby.

Members of Jacksonville lodge No. 570, A. F. and A. Masons; Uman lodge No. 243, I. O. O. F., and Jacksonville lodge No. 682, B. P. O. E., were present in a body and the large number and striking beauty of the floral emblems evidenced the thoughtfulness and kind expression of loving friends.

The services began with the reading of a selection from the "Ethics of the Fathers" and the 90th Psalm by Rabbi Traugott, who, after a fervent prayer, delivered the funeral discourse. He said:

Before the mortal remains of our esteemed brother are taken to his last home among "those who sleep in the dust," I want to pay a brief tribute to his memory. A large number of us here are smarting under a sense of personal and sudden loss. But a few days ago our departed brother was in the midst of life, of joy and hope. Suddenly he has been stricken down. Without a word of warning he has been torn from the embrace of his wife and child; from the society of his relatives; from a circle of friends by whom he was esteemed for his many good qualities. Of the position which he held in business circles, this is not the place to speak. But a word may fitly be spoken of the good uses to which he put the opportunities of his position. Many who had the privilege of knowing him intimately, can speak of the sense of serious responsibility under which he continually lived, of his care and devotion to his wife and child and of his other good deeds. If his friends feel his loss so keenly, what must it not signify in the bosom of his family? Our hearts go out in sympathy to his sorrowing widow, whose sun of happiness has suddenly been quenched in midnight gloom. But it is the office of religion to assuage our griefs by teaching us to meet the calamities of life in a spirit of resignation and hope. Our religion points the sufferer to the source whence affliction flows. It assures us that our sufferings are sent by One who often loves us most when He smites us most heavily. But to meet our trials in a spirit of resignation we need to possess faith, and before all things, faith in the future life. The separation from him you love is only temporary. The very suddenness with which he has been called away, is the clearest proof that those powers have not been annihilated. They have been transplanted to another world, where they are destined to blossom under better conditions. May this comfort and assurance be yours, and may the Divine Healer of wounds pour the balm of His consolation upon your lacerated hearts. Amen.

Dr. W. F. Short then made a few very brief, but appropriate remarks, speaking of the departed as a friend. He said in part:

"In common with my fellow citizens and the members of the entire community, I am overwhelmed and appalled by this sad event, which has brought to us all a feeling of the deepest sorrow. When such experiences as these come to us we realize the utter inability of language to express our emotion. As a friend, it is a melancholy duty to suitably express the esteem in which our departed brother was held. For a quarter of a century we of this community have known him and become acquainted with the beautiful qualities of heart and character which we could not fail to recognize. He met his obligations to his fellow men and to his God. "Do justly, love mercy and walk humbly with thy God," has been spoken of by the prophet of old as the epitome of human duty. Our brother was a just man and how conspicuously the quality of mercy was faultlessly employed throughout his life. He revered his Maker and had respect for His works, the crowning feature of the epitome. We shall see him no more in this community, we shall miss his familiar and cordial handshake, yet the influence of his life and his example will abide with us and should stimulate us to nobler living. It is no common loss our community has received, but how much greater must be the loss of those who stand in a closer circle? That in His abounding grace He may sustain them in this hour of their bereavement, is our wish and confident hope." Judge Edward P. Kirby followed Dr. Short and spoke of the departed as a citizen. He said in part:

"In this sad hour, when we are assembled to pay our last tribute of respect to the memory of our brother, we feel our poverty to adequately give expression to our emotions. We shall miss his friendly greeting, his kindly sympathy and wise counsel. On this occasion our memory runs back and recalls many pleasant relations and experiences. Some of us remember when he came to this community in the strength and vigor of manhood, how he proved his fitness and worth by his faithfulness to duty and how later he became associated with the business and fraternal organizations of the city, in which he has ever played a prominent part. "These are all pleasant memories, but they are saddened at this time as we feel the deep sense of loneliness that has come to this wife and daughter, these brothers and sisters. What can we say as brothers and friends? We can only say that we mourn with you. Your sorrow is our sorrow; your loss is our loss."

The services were concluded with a solo, "O, Dry Those Tears," beautifully sung by Mrs. Will Short. Mrs. C. A. Johnson presided at the piano. Conspicuous among the floral offerings was a most beautiful lamp sent by his employees, a floral star was received from the Tribe of Ben Hur, a set piece of white button chrysanthemums from the Odd Fellows, a large bunch of white chrysanthemums from the Elks, two long streamers of roses from the Masonic bodies and a beautiful bunch of pink chrysanthemums from the Wednesday Musical club.

The remains were taken to Chicago on the 8:54 Wabash train, where more extended funeral services will be held. The bearers in this city were C. G. Rutledge, T. M. Tomlinson, A. M. Halliwell, Col. John R. Robertson, H. D. Atkins, E. E. Crabtree, W. H. Richards and Jacob Cohen.

The flowers were cared for by Mrs. H. K. Snyder, Mrs. J. H. Dunsin, Mrs. J. R. Robertson, Mrs. E. E. Crabtree and Miss Kittie Donovan.

The interment will take place in Rose Hill cemetery, and in addition to Mrs. Seeberger and daughter, those who accompanied the remains were: Julius, George and Meyer Seeberger, brothers; Mrs. Harmon, of Quincy, sister; Mrs. Rosenheim, Mrs. Gus Hoffman and Julius Weil.

Solid Comfort in Footwear.

Perhaps you are having trouble with your feet, if so, you can get relief by using our cushion sole shoes. Many people that have had troublesome feet have found relief by using these shoes. It is impossible to fully appreciate the real assistance of cushion sole shoes until you have given them a thorough trial. Instead of the constant tread on a hard piece of insole, your foot rests on a piece of heavy wool covered over with a light piece of leather. No wonder they are easy.

Dr. Reed's Cushion Sole

It is not strange that people like these shoes. We are showing a broader assortment than ever for fall. In ladies with or without rubber heels $3.50 to $4.50. In men's $3.50 to $5.00.
